Gayle Shearman, Retreat Leader

Gayle is a cradle Methodist having been born and raised in the Red Bluff United Methodist Church. She became involved in district and conference youth ministries while she was in high school and as she began college she also began an eight year term as a director of the General Board of Global Ministries and was Women's Division – now United Methodist Women Inc.

On completing her master's degree in demography at Washington State, Gayle moved to the Bay Area. Since the mid 80's she has worked for a company that produces Gift Shows and Harvest Festivals. Fortunately they are quite philanthropic and have supported Gayle in continuing to be active beyond her local church in Novato with District and Conference United Methodist Women as well as several committees in the California Nevada Conference, including the Council on Finance & Administration and her current role as Conference Co-Lay Leader.

Gayle enjoys making computers and electronic equipment behave, trips to the beach, and traveling with friends.

Bring your Bible, paper, pencil, and a picture of a WINDOW.
It can be in your mind, or a photo, or a drawing.

There will be a labyrinth to walk, songs to sing, friends to meet, and food to eat.
Please fill out the registration form with your choice of sandwich.

The Registration forms are due Friday, February 26, 2016.
Registration Fee: $12.00
